

USPS SIMULATOR HEADED FOR THE BOAT SHOW – Want to refresh your handling skills and be ready for the boating season just ahead? The United States Power Squadrons will feature their high-tech boating simulator at the Progressive Akron Boat & Water Sports Show and all visitors are invited to take the helm. There will also be information about the many USPS boating classes offered both on line and in classrooms throughout this spring. USPS boasts more available boating courses than any other such organization.